The Aircraft Carrier Hiryu

Stefan Draminski

A uniquely detailed study of a Japanese aircraft carrier that took part in the attack on Pearl Harbor, before being sunk at Midway.

Superbly illustrated with full-colour artwork of the ship through its career, a complete set of detailed line drawings, internal reconstructions of deck layouts, and 3D illustrations of every detail of the ship from its rigging to its aircraft to its anchors, this book recreates and dissects one of the most prominent carriers of the early Pacific War.

Built in the late 1930s, Hiryu took part in the attack on Pearl Harbor and most of the operations of Japan's triumphant first months of the war, before being sunk at Midway.

Stefan Draminski is an illustrator and naval historian. He has developed a technique for creating breathtakingly realistic 3D models of ships which can be taken apart to create almost infinite details of the ships.

Dunkirchen 1940

The German View of Dunkirk

Robert Kershaw

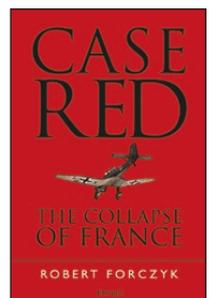

Using revelatory new material, this ground-breaking history explores the battle of Dunkirk from the German perspective.

This is the first major history to uncover what went wrong for the Germans at Dunkirk. Hitler had seemingly achieved a miracle after the swift capitulation of Holland and Belgium, but just seven kilometres outside Dunkirk his panzers came to a shuddering stop. Hitler had lost control of his stunning advance. Only a detailed interpretation of the German perspective – historically lacking to date – can provide answers as to why.

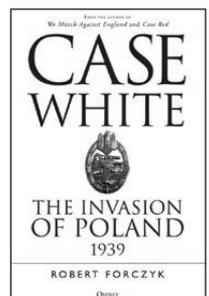

Drawing on his own military experience, his German language skills and his historian's eye for detail, Robert Kershaw creates a new history of this familiar battle which delves into the under-evaluated major German miscalculations that arguably cost Hitler the war.

Robert Kershaw joined the Parachute Regiment in 1973 and ultimately commanded 10 PARA. He attended the German Staff College, spending a further two years with the Bundeswehr as an infantry, airborne and arctic warfare instructor. On leaving the British Army he became a full-time author and a military analyst. He lives in Salisbury, England.

The Cactus Air Force

Air War over Guadalcanal

Eric Hammel & Thomas McKelvey Cleaver

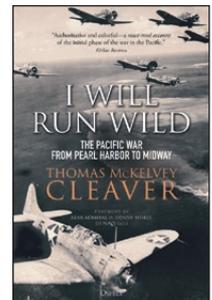

Using diary entries, interviews and first-hand accounts, this vivid narrative brings to life the struggle in the air over the island of Guadalcanal.

For 40 years from 1961, the late Eric Hammel interviewed more than 150 American participants in the air campaign at Guadalcanal, none of whom are still alive. These interviews are the most comprehensive first-person accounts of the battle assembled by any historian. More importantly, they involved the junior officers and enlisted men whose stories and memories were not part of the official history, thus providing a unique insight.

In The Cactus Air Force, Pacific War expert Thomas McKelvey Cleaver builds on Eric Hammel's vast collection of diary entries, interviews, and first-hand accounts. The result is a vivid narrative of the struggle in the air over the island of Guadalcanal between August 20 and November 15, 1942.

Eric Hammel is recognized as one of the leading American military historians, with more than 40 well-received books that are considered authoritative on their subjects. Co-author Thomas McKelvey Cleaver is one of Osprey's most successful authors and a recognized authority on the Pacific War.

The Mighty Eighth

Masters of the Air over Europe 1942–45

Donald Nijboer

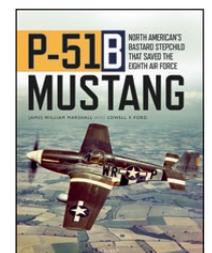

A superbly illustrated examination of the aircraft, pilots, crews and operations of the US Eighth Air Force.

The US Eighth Air Force—known as the “Mighty Eighth”—was a combat air force activated in Georgia, USA on January 28, 1942. Its bomber command soon moved to Northern Europe to conduct strategic bombing missions, seeking to destroy Germany's ability to wage war. Among the major operations it participated in were “Big Week” in February 1944; the D-Day landings in June 1944; and the defeat of the Luftwaffe and destruction of German industry.

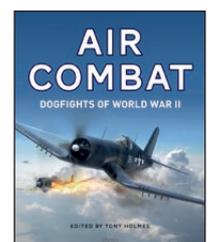

Packed with hundreds of colour aircraft profiles, battlescene artworks, and period photos, The Mighty Eighth provides a truly comprehensive exploration of the US Eighth Air Force.

Donald Nijboer lives in Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada. His previous works on World War II include Cockpit: An Illustrated History of World War II Aircraft Interiors and Gunner: An Illustrated History of World War II Aircraft Turrets and Gun Positions. Donald has also written articles for Flight Journal, Aviation History and Aeroplane Monthly.

Bitter Peleliu

The Forgotten Struggle on the Pacific War's Worst Battlefield

Joseph Wheelan

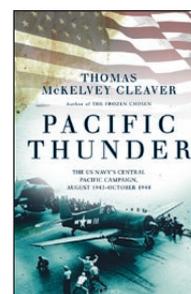

The hard-hitting history of the Pacific War's 'forgotten battle' of Peleliu – a story of intelligence failings and impossible bravery.

In late 1944, as a precursor to the invasion of the Philippines, US military analysts decided to seize the small island of Peleliu to ensure that the Japanese airfield there could not threaten the invasion forces.

Bitter Peleliu reveals how US intelligence officers failed to detect the complex network of caves, tunnels, and pillboxes hidden inside the island's coral ridges. More importantly, they did not discern – nor could they before it happened – that the defense of Peleliu would represent a tectonic shift in Japanese strategy. Historian Joseph Wheelan dissects the American intelligence and strategic failings, analyses the shift in Japanese tactics, and recreates the 1st Marines' horrific experiences on the worst of the Pacific battlegrounds. This book is a brilliant, compelling read on a forgotten battle.

Joseph Wheelan is the author of ten books about 19th- and 20th-century American history including Midnight in the Pacific (2017) and Bloody Okinawa (2020). Previously, he was an editor and reporter for The Associated Press for 24 years. He lives in Cary, North Carolina.

Chobham Armour

Cold War British Armoured Vehicle Development

William Suttie

A comprehensive overview of the work of the Military Vehicles Research and Development Establishment on Chobham Common.

For over 60 years The British Army's centre for military vehicle design, development and testing at Chertsey, on Chobham Common, was responsible for the introduction of British military vehicles, including the iconic Centurion, Chieftain and Challenger main battle tanks. Although they were never used for their intended purpose on the plains of North-west Germany, these vehicles proved their worth in British operations in Korea, Bosnia, Kuwait, Iraq and Afghanistan, as well as in the hands of many other forces around the world.

In Chobham Armour, military vehicle and equipment expert William Suttie draws extensively on official MOD reports and documentation to give a comprehensive account of the development of the tanks and other tracked and wheeled vehicles developed at Chertsey that formed the backbone of the Cold War British Army.

William Suttie has worked for the UK MOD for over 25 years in the field of military vehicle and equipment research and development. He has an Honours degree in Automotive Engineering and a Masters Degree in Military Vehicle Technology.

Meat Grinder

The Battles for the Rzhev Salient, 1942-43

Prit Buttar

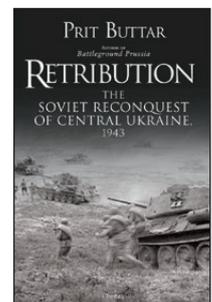

An engrossing history of the desperate battles for the Rzhev Salient, brought to life by the harrowing memoirs of German and Russian soldiers.

The fighting between the German and Russian armies in the Rzhev Salient during World War II was so grisly, so murderous, and saw such vast losses that the troops called the campaign 'The Meat Grinder'. Yet though millions would fight and die there, the salient has been largely ignored by Western historians...until now.

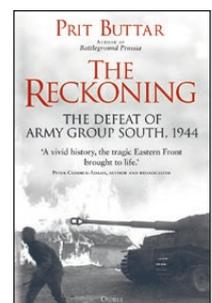

Eastern Front expert Prit Buttar analyses the four major offensives launched by the Red Army against the salient, revealing the depth and depravity of the fighting. He details how the region held the promise of a renewed drive on the Soviet capital for the German Army – a chance to turn the tide of war. Using first-hand accounts from both sides, Meat Grinder examines how the Rzhev Salient helped pave the way for the eventual Soviet victory against Army Group Centre in 1944, leaving the road to Berlin clear.

Prit Buttar is an established expert on the Eastern Front in 20th-century military history. His previous books include the acclaimed Battleground Prussia: The Assault on Germany's Eastern Front 1944-45 and Between Giants: The Battle for the Baltics in World War II. He now writes exclusively from his home in rural Scotland.

To Save An Army

The Stalingrad Airlift

Robert Forsyth

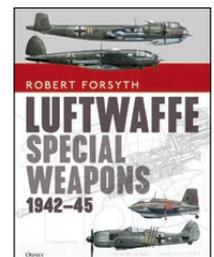

Using contemporary photographs and previously unpublished sources, Robert Forsyth analyses the human, strategic, tactical and technical elements of one of the most dramatic Luftwaffe operations.

Stalingrad ranks as one of the most infamous, savage and emotive battles of the 20th century. It has consumed military historians since the 1950s and has inspired many books and much debate. This book tells the story of the operation mounted by the Luftwaffe to supply, by airlift, the trapped and exhausted German Sixth Army at Stalingrad in the winter of 1942/43.

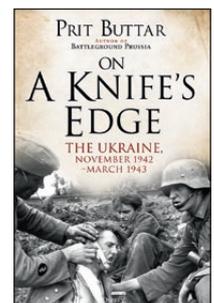

Yet, even the daily figure of tons of supplies, needed by Sixth Army just to subsist, proved over-ambitious for the Luftwaffe which battled against a lack of transport capacity, worsening serviceability, and increasing losses in badly needed aircraft. Using previously unpublished diaries, original Luftwaffe reports and specially commissioned artwork, this gripping battle is told in detail through the eyes of Luftwaffe commanders and pilots.

Robert Forsyth is an author, editor and publisher, specialising in military aviation and military history. He is the author of over 30 titles for Osprey Publishing, on the aircraft, units and operations of the Luftwaffe.

Putin's Wars

From Chechnya to Ukraine

Mark Galeotti

A history of how Putin and the conflicts he has chosen to involve Russia in have inexorably reshaped the country and her role on the world stage.

Putin's Wars is a timely overview of the conflicts in which Russia has been involved since Vladimir Putin became president of Russia in 2000. But it also looks more broadly at his recreation of Russian military power and its expansion to include a range of new capabilities, from mercenaries to operatives in a relentless information war against Western powers. Thanks to Dr Galeotti's wide-ranging contacts throughout Russia, it is peppered with anecdotes of military life, personal snapshots of conflicts, and an extraordinary collection of first-hand accounts from serving and retired Russian officers.

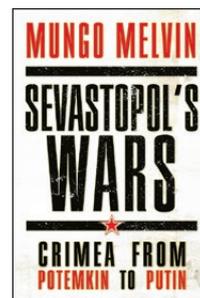

Russia continues to dominate the news cycle throughout the Western world. There is no better time to understand how and why Putin has involved his armed forces in a variety of conflicts for over two decades. There is no author better placed to demystify the capabilities of the Russian military and give a glimpse into what the future may hold.

Professor Mark Galeotti is one of the foremost Russian-watchers today, who travels there regularly to teach, lecture, talk to his contacts and observe the unfolding story of the Putin era. Based in London, he is Senior Non-Resident Fellow at the Institute of International Relations Prague.

Never Greater Slaughter

Brunanburh and the Birth of England

Michael Livingston

Available: November 2022
ISBN: 9781472849380
Price: £10.99 / US $18 / CAN $24
Period: Medieval Warfare
Format: Paperback, 224 pages
16pp plate section in colour

Late in AD 937, four armies met at Brunanburh. On one side stood the shield-wall of the expanding kingdom of the Anglo-Saxons. On the other side, a remarkable alliance of rival kings – at least two from across the sea – who had come together to destroy the Anglo-Saxons once and for all.

This groundbreaking new book tells the story of this remarkable battle and delves into why and how it happened. Most importantly, though, it is about the men who fought and died at Brunanburh, and how much this forgotten struggle can tell us about who we are and how we relate to our past.

Under the Southern Cross

The South Pacific Air Campaign Against Rabaul

Thomas McKelvey Cleaver

Available: November 2022
ISBN: 9781472838230
Price: £14.99 / US $22 / CAN $29

Format: Paperback, 320 pages
32pp plate section in b&w

Under the Southern Cross sheds new light on the Allied campaigns fought in New Guinea and the Solomon Islands between August 1942 and February 1944, some of the most difficult in history for the US Navy. It draws on extensive and compelling first-hand accounts from both sides of the conflict to tell the story of those who fought in the attritional battles in the skies over Guadalcanal, New Guinea, Bougainville and Rabaul, as well as in the bitterly contested actions in the Solomon Sea. Thomas McKelvey Cleaver skillfully narrates the story of these hard-fought and bloody battles using first hand experiences to paint a picture of the war from both sides.
